

Stephen Omollo

Chief Executive Officer of Plan International

WORK EXPERIENCE

Stephen Omollo took up post as CEO of Plan International on 1 February 2022.

He has extensive experience in leadership roles in the humanitarian and development sector, having previously served at senior levels with International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, Commonwealth Secretariat and World Vision International.

Before joining World Vision International as Vice President and Regional Director for Eastern Africa, he worked with IFRC as Chief for Humanitarian Diplomacy and as its Global Director of Partnerships and Resource Development in Geneva. He has also served as IFRC's Chief Diplomatic Officer, and as Permanent Representative and Head of Africa Union Office in Addis Ababa.

He was appointed by the Commonwealth Secretary General as Special Advisor and Head of Good Offices and Mediation Services – based at the Commonwealth Secretariat in London. During his time with the Commonwealth, he supported and facilitated peacebuilding and mediation missions in Fiji, Vanuatu, Solomon Islands, Maldives, Cameroon and The Gambia.

He has also served in various roles leading and coordinating large scale emergency response operations in senior positions including Country Representative, Humanitarian Coordinator, Regional Director and others.

EDUCATION

He holds a Master's degree in Management from Lancaster University, UK, a postgraduate studies in Practising Management from INSEAD, a Bachelor's of Commerce degree from Lucknow University, India and a MIT Sloan Certification in Digital Business Strategy.